RE: Transmittal of Electronic Files:
Webster University
Interdisciplinary Science Building

Per your request, of RFI-077, dated 12 May 2016, we will send you the electronic files listed below:

Bound CAD files: Fire Protection drawings –
FP0100.A, FP0101.A, FP0101.B, FP0102.A, FP0102.B, FP0103.A, FP0103.B, FP0104.A, FP0104.B.

The files will be sent as drawing (DWG) files. Use of these Files constitutes your agreement with the following:

The recipient agrees to hold harmless Webb Engineering Services, Inc. of any virus on electronic media. The recipient is hereby directed to remove from all transmitted documents prior to reuse all references to "Webb Engineering Services", the Webb Engineering Services logo, and all names and/or initials of Webb Engineering Services personnel appearing on the documents. No further distribution, propagation or reuse of these documents beyond that expressly approved, in writing, by Webb Engineering Services and Client is allowed.

As you requested, we will provide copies of the above described electronic computer-aided design information (Files) prepared for your convenience, subject to the following terms:

Our Files are compatible with AutoCAD 2012. No representations are made regarding the long term compatibility, usability or readability of these Files with hardware or software other than our own.

Data contained in these Files constitutes a component of the instruments of service we have prepared for the exclusive benefit of our client on the Project. These Files may not be used by you or anyone else receiving this data from you for any purpose other than in the preparation of shop drawings and record drawings for the referenced Project. Any other use by you or others is at your sole risk and without liability to us.

As a strict condition of having the above described documents, you agree to waive any claims that may arise out of your use of these Files. You also agree, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to defend, indemnify, and hold us harmless against all claims, damages, liabilities, or costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or resulting from your use of these Files.

These Files are not considered construction documents nor are they any substitute for such documents. Differences may exist between these electronic files and corresponding printed or hard-copy construction documents. You agree to accept the Files "as is". In the event of a conflict between the sealed hard-copy construction documents and these Files, the sealed hard-copy construction documents shall govern.

Since the electronic data in these Files can deteriorate or be modified inadvertently, you agree to be responsible for determining if any defects or conflicts exist in these Files. You agree to inform us immediately upon your discovery of any incomplete, inaccurate or defective information. We agree to correct any such issues in these Files upon the receipt of your notice.

These Files are not reusable for any other project or for additions or extensions to this Project. Because information presented on the electronic files can be modified, unintentionally or otherwise, we reserve the right to remove all indicia of authorship and/or involvement from each electronic display. The transfer of these Files conveys no license to your use of the underlying software nor shall it alter our right to reuse this information in the future.

The delivery of these Files shall not be deemed a sale by us, and we make no warranties, either express or implied, of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose. In no event shall we be liable for any consequential damages that may result from your use of these Files.

Please indicate your agreement to the foregoing by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. Upon receiving the signed copy of this letter, we will forward the above documents.

Sincerely,
WEBB ENGINEERING SERVICES, INC.

Michael R. Whitworth
