Project Name: 15051-Webster University Interdisciplinary Science Building

Project No.: 15051

Subject: CPT-1 Discontinuation

Response Required By: January 03, 2017

Drawing / Spec Reference:

Information Requested:

Flooring Systems Inc has stated CPT-1 (Masland; Positive Traction, 78200) has been discontinued. Please advise of suitable alternative.

Response:

masland is coming out with a similar product that will be available in the next couple months. If we need to select a different manufacturer immediately, we will need to get owner approval for the product. Our preference would be to wait until the new product is available.
