Casework Warranty

Jamestown Metal Products guarantees the metal casework for the above referenced building to be free from defects of Jamestown's workmanship or materials and agrees that it will, for a period of three (3) year from the date of acceptance, repair and/or replace, at its own expense, any materials furnished by Jamestown that may develop such defects due to, or arising from, its own workmanship or material. It is understood, however, that the liability of Jamestown Metal Products here under is limited to the making of such repairs or replacements.
